Subject: Important Announcement Lega Guarantee

Dear ,

As the manager of Lega, I want you to know how seriously we take getting your order right. A small change can make a big difference, a misspelt name for example. I also understand how frustrating it can be when suppliers make mistakes.

That's why we've introduced the Lega Guarantee:

"Exactly What You Ordered — Or It's Free"

If we don't supply your order exactly as approved, we'll remake it at no charge or provide it free of charge.

This guarantee is backed by us being the only company in our industry certified to ISO9001:2015, which means our quality systems and processes are independently audited to international standards.

Thank you for your continued support and trust in Lega.
We genuinely appreciate your business.

Kind regards,

Melissa Fox
